

Katherine Neumann, Executive Director

Sincerely,

Thank you again for your generous support of St. Augustine Academy.

SAA is a small organization at this time but thanks to support like yours we plan to expand our footprint and impact on the community.

The current enrollment of 27 girls comes mainly from Gotwals Elementary and Hancock Elementary schools. We serve a diverse population of African-American, Hispanic, and Caucasian families. A significant number of the girls come from low-income and/or single parent households.

St. Augustine Academy (SAA), located in Norristown, PA, is an independent tuition-free, after-school program for girls in grades two, three and four. SAA's mission is to supplement classroom learning by offering academic support and enrichment through exposure to the arts, while emphasizing life skills and building self-esteem. We do this by providing assistance with homework and by encouraging leadership skills with a focus on manners, respect, and taking responsibility – all in a stable, cooperative and supportive environment.

On behalf of the directors, volunteers, and students at St. Augustine Academy, we would like to thank you for being a sponsor for The St. Augustine Academy In Conjunction With Body Intensity Personal Training Services first 5K Walk & Run. SAA is grateful for your assistance with our mission to provide a tuition-free after-school program for girls in the Norristown Area School District.
